

Kas Ka Ra Rehearsal Schedule: 1/28 – 4/8/10

Notes on Scheduling:

- Your child will be needed during some class times other than the session that s/he is enrolled in (eg. Drama I students may be needed during the Drama II time and vice-versa). I am aware that some of the middle school students get out of school around the time that early rehearsals start. When assigned to an earlier rehearsal, please be sure your child makes every effort to get to rehearsal as quickly as possible.
- Not all actors will work with Matthew directly in each rehearsal. However, they can still work in small groups to develop their characters and practice lines and blocking.
- If your child's character is not mentioned in a particular rehearsal time, s/he should attend class at their regularly scheduled time.
- All actors are expected to be focused and ready to work upon their prompt arrival in class.
- All students should be relatively "off book" memorized with their lines by 2/18. All students should be 100% off book by the end of February.
- Please double check the scenes that your child appears in. Although I've made every effort to list the actors needed as accurately as possible, ultimately, it is your child's responsibility to know what scenes s/he appears in.
- I understand that life happens outside of theatre, but please keep in mind that preparing for a show is a big commitment. Please make every effort to schedule other obligations around rehearsal schedules and do let us know asap of any unavoidable scheduling conflicts:

And finally, thanks so much for your support. I'm very excited about this show!

Sincerely,

Matthew Engel
Drama Teacher & Director
